ABOUT THIS BIBLIOGRAPHY

Life in Action magazine is a rarity in the world of publishing. Every issue is, as they say, "non-perishable." Most publications deal with current events in some fashion. Life in Action presents the principles of living a constructive life—unchanging principles. Each issue will be as relevant throughout the next millennium as it is today.

I found myself frequently looking for, and failing to find, articles I had read. So, I decided to compile this bibliography—and not for my use alone. I want to make this available to anyone who would like a copy.

It has been a privilege to compile this little work. While I have always been impressed with Life in Action, and even though I have read each issue cover-to-cover, it wasn't until I could read a multi-year list of titles that I began to understand the true depth and breadth of this publication. I think you'll be similarly impressed.

I hope you find this bibliography useful. As with any work of this nature, please understand that mistakes are easy to make yet difficult to spot. However, I assume all responsibility for errors.
